In Re: New York City Policing During Summer 2020 Demonstrations,
No. 20 Civ. 8924 (CM) (GWG)
This filing is related to all cases

Your Honor:

I am the Division Chief of the Special Federal Litigation Division in the Office of the Honorable Sylvia O. Hinds-Radix, Corporation Counsel of the City of New York. In an order, dated May 2, 2022, the Court directed the undersigned:

“[T]o consult separately with each employee of the Law Department who has worked on the consolidated cases to determine whether any such employee is aware of any other misrepresentations that have been made either to the Court or to opposing counsel in connection with the consolidated cases.”

“Employee” is interpreted to mean current and former employees including attorneys and support staff who had any participation in the Consolidated Cases.

“Consult” is interpreted as a one-on-one interview with the undersigned and an employee. Also present during an interview is the Law Department’s Chief Ethics Officer.

This letter serves as the seventh status report to the Court. At this time, 47 employees have been identified as having at least some participation in the Consolidated Protest cases. At this point, 46 out of 47 current and former employees have been interviewed with nothing further to report to the Court. One interview with a former employee remains to be conducted. That interview is expected to be completed by the end of this week.

Respectfully submitted,

Patricia Miller /s/

Patricia Miller
